

Coronavirus and your probation

Important:

- You are still required to keep in touch with your Offender Manager and could be breached or recalled if you don't
- You must make sure we have your correct telephone number and address (contact us if this changes)
- Programmes and Unpaid work are suspended – your Offender Manager will tell you if you need to attend on a one-to-one basis
- We must be able to contact or visit you, adhering to social distance guidelines
- Licence conditions are unchanged – you must comply with them

Speak to your Offender Managers if you:

- Do not have access to a mobile phone
- Become homeless, so that we can take action to avoid people sleeping on the streets
- Are unwell, or have been advised to socially isolate
- Change your address

Speak to your offender manager
if you have any concerns
